

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, June 5. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 9.

Turin, May 20.

A Strong Party of the Imperial Cavalry, which is in the Neighbourhood of Chivas, made an Incurſion very lately into the Milaneze under the Command of Collonel Pfeſſenſcorn, with very great Succeſs. They took the Baggage of the Duke of Vendome and Monſieur de Bezons; and on the Naviglio, or Canal of Milan, they took 3 Barks laden with Cloaths and Accoutrements for the Enemy's Troops: In their Return, they met near Pavia, 4 Regiments of Horſe commanded by Monſieur de Vaubecourt, whom they attack'd and defeated. They return'd Yeſterday to Chivas, having in all their March had the Advantage of the Enemy, and having kill'd or taken near 600 Horſe, and taken about 40 Officers, among which are 4 Collonels.

From the Frontiers of Savoy, May 26. Collonel Pfeſſenſcorn, who the 17th of this Month march'd from his Royal Highneſs's Camp with 400 Horſe, has made a ſucceſſful Excurſion, having rais'd Contributions on all the little Towns of the Novareze, and taken all the Horſes and Mules of the Duke of Vendome and Monſieur de Montgon, which were at Biagrafs, within 4 Miles of Vigevano. Monſieur de Vaubecourt ſeeing this Detachment paſs by Vercelli, of which he is Governour, ſent Couriers to all the neighbouring Towns, to warn them to be upon their Guard. And himſelf, at the Head of 1000 Horſe, march'd out in purſuit of the Imperialiſts. He got up with them in the Evening, when charging them he was worſted, himſelf and 400 of his Men being kill'd. The Collonel of the French Regiment of Royal Rouſillon was wounded; a Major, and ſeveral Officers and Subalterns were kill'd or wounded. The Imperialiſts took 6 Standards, and 1 pair of Kettle-Drums; without more Loſs on their ſide than of 1 Major wounded and taken Priſoner, and about 20 Horſe kill'd or wounded. They took alſo 300 Horſes, 8000 Louis d'Or, and above 30000 Livres in Silver. 'Tis believ'd this Exploit will produce an advantageous Diverſion; becauſe the Duke of Vendome, who had diſſuſt of Men, all fortified places to reinforce his Army, will be oblig'd to ſend back good Garrifons into them, to prevent the like Excurſions, which will probably be often repeated.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 9.

Cracow, May 24. The Diet of the Nobility of this Palatinat was open'd here yeſterday, and they have reſolv'd to ſend Deputies, 1. To the new King, to acknowledge him as ſuch, and to aſſure him of their Fidelity. 2. To the King of Sweden, to deſire him to put a ſtop to the Contributions rais'd by his Troops in this Palatinat. 3. To the Cardinal Primate, to deſire him to appoint a Day for the Coronation of the new King, and to be preſent at it himſelf. 4. To the great Marſhal of the Crown, to invite him to joyn the Nobility of this Palatinat, and aſſiſt at the ſaid Coronation. 5. To the neighbouring Palatinats, to preſs them to enter into their Party, and renounce the Confederacy of Sendomir made in favour of King Auguſtus. 6. To the Army of the Crown, to exhort them to obey the great Marſhal, and to be aſſiſting to the foreſaid Coronation. And 7thly, to the Pope's Nuncio, to deſire him to uſe his belt Inter-eſt with the Pope, to prevail with him not to iſſue any Bull againſt the Cardinal Primate, or the Biſhop of Poſnania.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 9.

Amſterdam, June 9. The Advices from Warſaw of the 25th of May, tell us great Preparations were making at Lowicz, for the Reception of the Cardinal Primate; which ſhews the Party for the new King have found Means to overcome the Difficulties that formerly kept his Eminency from yielding to the Propoſals made to him in behalf of that King. The Muſcovites have paſs'd the Nieper near Kiow, with an Army of between 30 or 40000 Men and a fine Train of Artillery. They take their March through the Provinces of Podlachia and Podolia; but what deſign they have in View, is yet a Secret. It appears the Swedes will not quit the upper Poland; unleſs the Czar oblige them to it, by ſome important Enterprize. The Siege of Riga is ſtill talk'd of; but ſome are of Opinion the Czar will enter the Kingdom of Poland: If he does, the whole Country muſt be utterly ruin'd, after the Contributions already extorted by the other Parties.

King Auguſtus of Poland, left Dreſden the 29th of May, to go to Carelbad. 'Tis uncertain yet, whether his Poliſh Maſteſty will go to Vienna, or return into Poland through Bohemia and Moravia. which latter is the Opinion of ſome Perſons. Mean Time the Saxon regular Troops and Militia are order'd to put themſelves on the March, to cover the Frontiers of Luſace, where the Swedes begin to move.

From the Bruffels Gazette, dated June 5.

From the Camp at Val Notre Dame, June 2. The Army of the 2 Crowns, under his Electoral Highneſs, is encamp'd in 2 Lines in the Plain of Vignamont, to cover the Troops which Monſieur de Gace commands in the Siege of Huy. The Night between the 30th and 31ſt of laſt Month the Trenches were open'd before Fort Piquart, with the Loſs of only 3 Men kill'd or wounded. The following Night, the Trenches were advanc'd on the Right towards the Front of Fort Joſeph, and 2 Batteries of Cannon and 1 of Mortars were rais'd, which began to fire the next Morning, as did alſo another Battery of Mortars that was rais'd in the Suburbs of Stad, which batters Fort Piquart and Fort Rouge athwarr. The Night between the 1ſt and 2d Inſtant, we work'd to finiſh a new Battery of 12 Pieces of Cannon, to make a Breach in Fort Piquart with the others that began to play the Day before: And another Branch was run out, to approach Fort Piquart the nearer, while the Breach-Batteries play upon it. This Morning his Electoral Highneſs, was with the Marſhal de Villeroy in the Quarter of the Count de Gace, to give him ſome Orders.

From the Bruffels Gazette, dated June 5.

Bruffels, June 5. An Expreſs who was diſpatch'd yeſterday at Noon, from the Camp at Val Notre Dame, and arriv'd here at Night, brought News, that it being judg'd proper to attack Fort Piquart, and Fort Rouge, the Breaches made in them ſeeming to be wide enough, the Elector of Bavaria order'd a Detachment of 600 Grenadiers, commanded by Monſieur de Mercy, to attack them, which was done the 3d Inſtant at 10 a Clock at Night. The Breaches in Fort Piquart were not found ſpacious enough nough by the 300 Grenadiers that were led to the Attack on the Right, and therefore they were oblig'd to make use of Ladders; the other 300 Grenadiers of the Troops of Cologne and Bavaria, led by the Baron de Valaife, a Bavarian Captain of Grenadiers, who made the Assault on the Left, were also forc'd to use Ladders. They entered the Fort Sword in Hand, and pursu'd the flying Enemy who retir'd into Fort Rouge with so great Precipitation, that our Men enter'd Pell-mell with them, and made the Garrison of both Forts Prisoners of War. During this Attack, the Besieged made a prodigious Fire from Fort Joseph into the Rear of our Trenches. His Electoral Highness having foreseen that the Attack of the Forts Piquart and Rouge would be render'd difficult by the Fire of Fort Joseph, gave order to Monsieur de Groef, Brigadier of the Spanish Troops, to give a false Alarm on the Right of Fort Joseph, which succeeded. The Action lasted 3 Quarters of an Hour Monsieur de Mercy distinguish'd himself; we had but 10 or 15 Men kill'd or wounded.

This is all the Account given of this Siege, on the Part of the Enemy, in the Advices that came in the last Mails: What is related in the Prints, on the Part of the Allies, concerning this Siege or the Army on the Maefe under Monsieur d'Auverquerque, shall be found at full Length in our next.
